Consultation Opportunity: NEW Religious Education Agreed Syllabus

Following a productive initial online consultation event in May 2025, both Nottingham City & County SACRE would like to invite interested stakeholders to a further online meeting. This will be:

Tuesday 15 July 6-7.15pm – online

You are particularly encouraged to invite and share this offer with community faith/worldview leaders so that all our faith representatives and the communities they represent can add their contributions to the discussion and help shape what our pupils will learn in RE for the next five years. All are welcome.

Any teachers/school staff and SACRE members are, of course, welcome to join too.

Lat Blaylock and his team will outline the progress so far and give you the opportunity to offer your perspective on the new syllabus. All views will be collated and fed back to the working party nominated by both SACREs for their next meeting in October. It is anticipated the Syllabus will be launched in June 2026, ready for implementation, Sept 2026.
